HURT HAA

A close-up illustration of a human hand, palm facing forward, with a speech bubble emerging from the wrist. The hand is rendered in a realistic style with visible skin texture and veins. The background is a soft-focus landscape with a blue sky and green ground.

At the bottom of the frame, a hand is visible, holding a small, dark rectangular object.
